

More than a place to work

Looking for a more inspiring and stimulating workspace?

The Melting Pot provides affordable shared, serviced office space in the heart of Edinburgh for social innovators, ethical businesses, charities, and others who are working for more than profit.

The Melting Pot
inspiration at work

The Melting Pot lets you:

- Access a professional, fully serviced workspace in the centre of Edinburgh when you need it, at a fraction of the cost of a traditional office,
- Make your enterprise a success by sharing skills, knowledge, contacts and ideas, or just a cup of tea, with other members,
- Gain motivation and inspiration from our diverse community of like-minded people.

" The Melting Pot is so much more than the physical space it occupies. It's a meeting of minds, an intriguing community and the doorway to all sorts of exciting opportunities... "

– Hannah Smith, Better World Books

What makes The Melting Pot different?

The Melting Pot's diverse community of members are all working to help make the world a better place. That makes for an inspiring, supportive and collaborative environment to help you work, connect, develop ideas, share skills and knowledge, and make things happen.

There's a regular programme of members' events including skill-sharing workshops, networking events, socials and lunches.
