

Self-Catering

The Melting Pot

inspiration at work

Terms and Conditions

A self-catering option is available in our events room for £30. This charge covers the supply of crockery, cutlery and use of facilities. It does not cover staff; all catering, serving, cleaning and recycling will be left to your event organiser who must abide by the following terms and conditions:

When choosing self catering you must:

- Bring your own catering supplies
- Prepare and serve all food yourself
- Abide by health, safety and hygiene policies. The Melting Pot will not accept responsibility for accidents or problems during the preparation of your food.
- Clean and return all equipment and items used in good working order by the end of the booking slot
- Remove all recycling and rubbish, including the bin, ready for the next customer by the end of the booking slot

Our staff will:

- Show you where catering equipment is stored
- Show you how to use the cooker, dishwasher etc...
- Provide you with cleaning solutions
- Be onsite to support and advise you with any issues that arise

A charge may result from:

- Any breakages or damages
- Any unwashed dishes or equipment
- Any bottles, recycling or rubbish left in the room
- Any additional cleaning that is required after your departure
- If your event and clear up time runs over the timeslot booked

At The Melting Pot we strive to supply high quality food that doesn't cost the earth. We believe our menu has a wide range of affordable, healthy and tasty options. If you are considering self-catering so you can source a specific item that is not on our menu, or due to financial constraints, then please contact us as we may be able to assist. Our events hosts are always happy to discuss your catering requirements and how we can meet your needs.

The Melting Pot is committed to supporting small local businesses rather than large corporations. We choose suppliers whose ingredients are organic, fair-trade or locally sourced. If you would like more information about our catering options or suppliers please contact our events hosts:
